In the event that a participant is caught with a cell phone after they have been asked to turn it in, that participant will be sent home immediately at their own expense.*

Please note: the Youth Program Cell Phone is always available for the participants to call parents if they would like or for parents to call in to the Youth Program.* 780-991-4620

General Rules and Guidelines for Participants

In view of the objectives and in consultation with the sponsors and previous seminar participants, the following few general rules and guidelines have been established for the total ACCA Co-operative Youth Leadership Program.

- Chaperones may be provided on the buses to and from Goldeye Centre. Participants are responsible for appropriate conduct on the buses. This includes getting off/on the bus only at scheduled rest stops or your scheduled departure point.
- Any changes affecting the information on the registration health form previously sent to ACCA must be reported to the Youth Program Co-ordinator upon arrival at Goldeye Centre.
- Program staff accommodations are separate from those of the participants however staff do sleep in the cabins. Appropriate conduct by participants is expected as well as keeping belongings organized in the shared space.
- Participants will be involved in recreational and sporting activities e.g., waterfront, initiative tasks, etc. which require the use of equipment in a safe manner. Participants are hereby advised that they cannot participate in these activities without the supervision of an ACCA volunteer staff member.
- Respecting the privacy of others will be expected.
- Sponsors and program staff expect a high degree of participation in the seminar.

Please note: If these Standards of Behaviour are not met, participants will be sent home at their expense and will be required to repay the Sponsor's portion.
